School secretaries include Mrs. Canniff, superintendent's secretary, Mrs. Myers, high school principal's secretary, and Mrs. Durkee, bookstore manager and financial secretary.

The fine meals served in our cafeteria are prepared by Theresa VanderBerg, Anna Wolfsen, Kathryn Smith, and Burnette Lips.

Mr. William Sneller, better known to students as "Mr. Bill," receives best wishes from Mr. Holcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Demmon upon his retirement from the school custodial staff last December.

Our school custodial staff keeps our school grounds and building pleasant places to work. First Row: Lloyd Holcomb, Chief Custodian, Henry Poll, Louis Tibbe. Second Row: Ray Bultman, Bud Reineke, Leonard Johnson, Ronald McDonald.

Joe Witte, mechanic, Chet Scott, bus maintenance, and Zerald Robins, driver training, show off the new drivers training car.

SENIORS

MRS. JANET BOERMAN

"I am not a teacher; only a fellow traveller of whom you asked the way. I pointed ahead of myself as well as of you."
George Bernard Shaw

For you Mrs. Boerman, this phrase is almost a way of life. Your guidance and wisdom have pointed out our paths. In grateful recognition for all you have done, and for all you mean to us, we, the Senior Class of 1965, dedicate this Mogul to you.

Mrs. Boerman, head senior sponsor, and Miss Elmquest, try to put the used clothing in order at the Senior Sale.

Senior Class Officers are G. Frens, President; T. Dunn, Vice President; K. Dykman, Secretary; F. Cole, Treasurer.

"What was so interesting in the halls that made you late, Nick?"

Class History

Finally, after approximately thirteen years of schooling, we have reached graduation. Many of us will go on to further academic achievements. Some will go to trade schools and others will marry or find employment right away. But of these past thirteen years, we will hold countless memories. Many of these memories will be about the past four years fondly referred to as the "high school years."

It all began in the fall of 1962. We entered the halls of Fremont High as Freshmen. Finally, we were in high school, and it didn't even bother much when the upperclassmen scornfully referred to us as "Frosh." Miss Orr was on hand as our head sponsor to give us an extra boost. The officers we chose to guide us were President, Tom DeShetler; Vice President, Dianne Potter; Secretary, Mary Jane Kingsford; and Treasurer, Bonnie Bacon. To represent us in Student Council we chose Rick Abbott, Mary Ann Belder, Nancy Burnett, Kaye Dykman, Lydia Martinez, and Bob Walker. For the Homecoming Court we chose lovely Lydia Martinez. Later on in the year one of our classmates, Gary Frens, was chosen as Mid-Winter Festival prince.

After a pleasant, and all to short, summer vacation we returned in the fall a year older and wiser as Sophomores. With Mr. Cooper as our head sponsor we strove forward. To govern our class we chose Joe Coleson, President; Howard Dykman, Vice President; Kaye Dykman, Secretary; and Don Anderson, Treasurer. Representing us in Student Council were Mary Ann Belder, Jan Ferguson, Gary Frens, Marcia Hunt, Mary Jane Kingsford, Sherri Miner, and Bob Walker. To serve on the Homecoming Court we chose pert Judi Swanberg. Later on in the fall most of us chose classrings and ordered them from Bowman's Jewelry. In the spring they came with as much variety and color as the spring flowers. Black pearl, blue, red, black onyx, white pearl, plates, and on and on. Representing our class in the Mid-Winter Festival the entire student body chose as prince and princess Gary Frens and Bonnie Bacon. The climax of the year came in the spring when some of us served at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

September of 1963 found us again in the halls of F.H.S., this time under the classification of Juniors. Mr. DeJong was our head sponsor and served as our guide in our busy Junior year. Serving as officers were President, Bill Luethge; Vice President, Lee Kraley; Secretary, Kaye Dykman; and Treasurer, Marcia VanHemert. In Student Council we were represented by Howdy Dahlstrom, Tom DeShetler, Dan Head, Barb Jahr, Mary Jane Kingsford, Sherri Miner, Rod Moon, Bob Ryan, and Bob Walker. As Homecoming representative we chose blond Nancy Burnett. To earn money for our prom in the fall we sold magazines. Another money making project and one that was lots of fun too, was the Junior Play presented in the spring. It was "I Remember Mama," directed by Miss Sogge. Cast in major roles were Louise Freriks, Jim Sherman, Shari Deur, Dan Head, Nancy Burnett, Chris Cronenwett, Bart Waldo, Sharon Shutts, Pat Brooks, Kaye Dykman, Rick Abbott, Anita Ensing, Dave Dougan, and several others. Besides the characters there were many others who worked hard on scenery, lights, tickets, and more. The climax of the year was the Banquet and Prom we gave for the Seniors. The decorations and arrangements were all perfect and the theme, "Moon River," made it even more lovely.

September, 1964, the beginning of our Senior year. We had finally made it and stretched out before us was a year full of memorable activities. Guiding our way was head sponsor Mrs. Boerman and helping her were Mr. Adair, Mr. Durkee, Miss Elmquest, Mr. Griffin, Mrs. Irwin, and Mr. Schray. Class officers were President, Gary Frens; Vice President, Tom Dunn; Secretary, Kaye Dykman; and Treasurer, Fred Cole. Classmates governing Student Council were President, Joe Coleson; Vice President, Bill Luethge; and Treasurer, Jan Ferguson. On the cabinet were Don Anderson, Howdy Dahlstrom, Steve Emerick, Anita Ensing, Dan Head, Marcia Hunt, Jim Sherman, Bob Ryan, and Mickey Uramkin. Serving as representatives were Sheryl Barlow, Mary Ann Belder, Nancy Burnett, Sue Mansfield, Sherri Miner, Don Truman, and Bob Walker. From our class we chose six lovely candidates for the Homecoming Queen. They were Sheryl Barlow, Nancy Burnett, Chris Cronenwett, Marcia Hunt, Lydia Martinez, and Judi Swanberg. The student body chose Lydia Martinez to reign over the festivities. The sale held in October was a huge success. Besides making a lot of money, we had fun canvassing and selling. In December, the Senior Play was presented. It was a mystery "The Spiral Staircase," directed by Miss Werner. The cast consisted of Pat Brooks, Shari Deur, Linda Frey, Dan Head, Marcia Hunt, Bart Waldo, and Bob Walker. There were many others who played an important part in putting it on. The student body chose two of our classmates as Mid-Winter Festival Royalty, King Tom DeShetler and Queen Shari Deur. In the midst of all this we somehow found time to do all the trivial things such as having pictures taken, choosing name cards, selecting announcements, and being fitted for caps and gowns. Miraculously, by June 1, we were ready. Commencement exercises were over and the realization hit us that never again would we walk the halls of Fremont High as students. We can't help but feel sad when we think that we will never see some of our classmates again. But there is the future and all the hopes and dreams that go with it.

We look back only in reverie . . . .
Unafraid we look to the future,
Challenged by what it holds for us.
